(3) Every such declaration must give the description and the place of residence of the declarant and where the facts stated in a declaration are not within the personal knowledge of the declarant, the source of the information and grounds for the belief of the declarant in its truth must be accurately and fully stated.

(4) The abstract and all other documents bearing on the case together with any complaint that may have been lodged shall be submitted by the Registrar to the President, who shall, if he thinks fit, instruct the Registrar to ask the Homeopathic practitioner concerned by means of a registered letter for an explanation within a time to be fixed by the President. After the expiry of such time the documents with the explanation, if any, shall be referred for consideration to a penal cases Committee which shall be appointed by the Council. The Committee shall have power to cause further investigation to be made and further evidence to be taken and, if necessary, obtain legal or their advice.

(5) The Committee shall report to the Council, and if on such report the Council considers that the case is one in which an enquiry ought to be held by the Council, the President shall direct the Registrar to take steps for the institution of any inquiry and for having the case heard and determined by the Council.

(6) The inquiry shall be commenced by the issue of a notice in writing by the Registrar on behalf of the Council, addressed to the Homeopathic Practitioner concerned. The notice shall specify the nature and particulars of the charge and the date of which the Council intends to inquire into the charge, and shall call upon the practitioner concerned to give a written answer to the charge by that date and also to attend the meeting of the Council on that date.

(7) The notice referred to in sub-rule (6) shall be in Form 25 with such variations as circumstances may require. It shall be sent at least twenty one days before the date of the inquiry, and shall be accompanied by a copy of report under sub-rule (5), and of the relevant rules to regulate the procedure for conducting any inquiry referred to in that section. A copy of the notice shall at the same time be sent to the complainant if any.

(8) In every case in which the Council resolves that an inquiry shall be instituted and a notice for an inquiry is issued accordingly, the complainant (if any) or the Homeopathic Practitioner charged shall, upon request in writing for that purpose signed by him or his legal representative, be entitled to be supplied by the Registrar with a copy of any declaration, explanation, answer or other documents given or sent to the Council by or on behalf of the other party, which may on proper proof be used at the hearing as evidence in support of or in answer to the charge specified in the notice of inquiry.

(9) Any application made by the Homeopathic practitioner proceeded against between the date of issue of the notice to him and the day fixed for the hearing of the charge shall be dealt with by the president in such manner as he shall think fit.

(10) All material documents which are to be laid before the Council as evidence in regard to the case shall be printed, or cyclostyled and a copy shall be furnished to each member of the Council before the hearing of the case.

(11) At the hearing of the case by the Council, the complainant or the practitioner proceeded against may be represented or assisted by a legal representative.

(12) Where a complainant appears personally or by a legal representative the order of procedure shall be as follows:—

- (i) The Registrar will read to the Council the notice of the inquiry addressed to the Homeopathic practitioner concerned.
- (ii) The complainant shall then be invited to state his case himself or by his legal representative and to produce his evidence in support of his allegations. At the conclusion of the complainant's evidence his case shall be closed.
- (iii) The Homeopathic practitioner concerned shall then be invited to state his defence himself or by his legal representative and to produce his evidence in support of it. He may address the Council either before or at the conclusion of his evidence but only once.
- (iv) At the conclusion of the case of the Homeopathic practitioner concerned the Council shall, if the said practitioner has produced evidence, hear the complainant in reply on the case generally, but shall hear no further evidence except in special case in which the Council may think it right to receive such further evidence. If the said practitioner produces no evidence, the complainant will not be heard in reply, except by special leave of the Council.

- (v) Where a witness is produced by any party before the Council he shall be first examined by the party producing him, and then cross-examined by opposite party and then re-examined by the party producing him. The Council may decline to admit in evidence any declaration where the declarant is not present for or decline to submit to, cross examination.
- (vi) The Chairman of the meeting may put questions to any witness and members of the Council, through the Chairman, may also put questions to any witness.

(13) Where there is no complainant, or no complainant appears, the procedure shall be as follows:—

- (i) The Registrar shall read to the Council the notice of inquiry addressed to the Homeopathic practitioner proceeded and shall state the facts of the case and produce before the Council the evidence by which it is supported.

Penalty

38. (1) Upon the conclusion of the hearing of the case in the manner as laid down in rule 38 the Council shall deliberate thereon in private, and at the conclusion of such deliberation the Chairman shall call upon the Council to vote on the Question whether the Homeopathic practitioner charged is guilty of infamous conduct in a professional capacity.

(2) If the Council by a majority of two-thirds of the members present and voting at the meeting, find the Homeopathic practitioner concerned guilty of infamous conduct in a professional capacity, the Council shall direct the Registrar not to register his name, if he be an applicant for registration, or to remove his name from the Register if he is already a registered Homeopathic Practitioner.

Intimation of removal or refusal of the name of a Homeopathic Practitioner

39. When the registration of the name of any Homeopathic practitioner is refused, or when the name of any registered Homeopathic practitioner is removed from the Register in accordance with the provisions of the preceding rules, the Registrar shall forthwith send notice of such refusal or removal to the practitioner, by a registered letter addressed to his last known address. The Registrar shall also send forthwith intimation of any such refusal or removal to the body or bodies from whom the said practitioner received his qualification or qualifications, and shall request it or them not to admit him without previous reference to the Council to any examination for any new qualification which is registrable in the Register. If a name is removed from the Register, the Registrar shall issue a notification in the Official Gazette announcing the removal.

Appeal

40. (1) An appeal to the Council preferred under section 26 against a refusal of the Registrar to register any qualification of any person whose name is entered in the Register shall be in writing and shall state the particular qualification in respect of which registration is being claimed and the date on which and the authority from which it was received.

(2) On receipt of such appeal it shall be referred to a committee of the council for consideration & report.

(3) The Committee shall have the power to call for the original diploma or license, or any other relevant document from the appellant for inspection and also such other evidence as may be considered necessary by it.

(4) At the conclusion of its inquiry, the Committee shall make a report to the Council embodying such recommendations as it shall think fit to make with the reasons for the recommendations.

(5) The appeal, the Committee's report on it, and all other documents in connection with the case shall be laid before the Council at its next meeting.

(6) The date on which the appeal is to be taken up by the Council shall be notified to the appellant. The appellant shall also be allowed, if he so chooses, to represent his case before the Council, either by himself or by his legal representative.

PART—V

AUDIT : ACCOUNTS AND BUDGET.

Accounts

41. (1) An account shall be opened with any of the Nationalised Bank at Agartala in the name of the Council and such account shall be operated upon by cheque signed by the Registrar and countersigned by the President or the Vice-President, if so authorised by the President in writing for acting in his absence. Cheques drawn in favour of the Council shall be endorsed by the President, the Vice-President or the Registrar.

(2) The Registrar shall receive all moneypayable to the Council. He may at any time retain in his hand a sum not exceeding Three hundred rupees to meet different items of current expenditure. The balance shall be lodged in the Bank to the credit of the Council.

(3) The Registrar shall immediately bring into account in the general Cash book all moneys received or spent by the Council.

(4) The Registrar may purchase any one article not exceeding Twenty rupees in value. No expenditure exceeding twenty rupees shall be incurred and no article the value of which exceeds twenty rupees shall be purchased by the Registrar without the previous sanction of the President.

(5) The Registrar shall in the month of July each year prepare a statement of the income and the expenditure of the preceding financial year and shall place it before the Council.

(6) A bill or any other voucher presented as a claim for money shall be received and examined by the Registrar. If the claim be for a sum not exceeding twenty rupees he shall pay it. If the claim be for a sum exceeding twenty rupees payment shall not be made until it has been examined and passed by the President.

(7) Any money received by the Council in advance towards payment of fees shall, if not claimed by the person entitled there to within a period of three years, be credited at the end of the period to the account of the Council.

Audit

(8) The annual accounts shall be prepared by the Registrar under the direction of the President.

42. (1) The accounts of the Council shall be audited annually as soon as possible after the close of the financial year by Auditors to be appointed by the Council with the approval of the State Government.

(2) In auditing the accounts the auditors shall be that the accounts have been kept and presented in proper proforma, that the particular items of receipts and expenditure are stated in sufficient details, that the payments are supported by adequate vouchers and authority, that all sums recovered or which ought to have been recovered are brought into account and that receipts and expenditure are such as are authorised by the Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder. They shall also ascertain the unpaid liabilities of the Council and also whether these can be met out of the funds of the Council when falling due.

(3) The President, Vice-President or the Registrar shall, at the time of audit, cause to be produced all accounts, registers, documents and subsidiary papers which may be required by the auditors for the purpose. He shall also produce the cash balance and the balance of the imprest before the auditors for verification.

(4) The President shall on receipt of the report of audit from the auditors forward a copy thereof to the State Government. He shall place the report at the next meeting of the Council for consideration and decision as to the action to be taken to remedy the defects and irregularities, if any, pointed out in the report. A copy of the resolution adopted by the Council to remedy the defects and irregularities pointed out by the auditors in their report shall also be forwarded to the State Government by the President.

Budget

43. (1) In the month of September in each year and not later than the fifteenth of the month of September an estimate of the revenue and of the expenditure of the Council for the year commencing on the 1st April, next ensuing shall be prepared by the Registrar and laid before the Council.

(2) Such estimate shall make provision for the fulfilment of the liabilities of the Council and for effectually carrying out its objects. It shall include on its revenue side, besides all revenue ordinarily anticipated, such grant as the State Government may allot and all fees received from registration and other sources.

(3) The Council shall consider the estimate so submitted to it and shall forward the same to Government for approval with such modifications as the Council may deem fit by the fifteenth of December.

(4) The Council may by the fifteenth of October of the year for which an estimate has been sanctioned cause a supplementary estimate to be prepared and submitted to it. Every such supplementary estimate shall be considered by the Council in the same manner as if it were an original annual estimate and forwarded to the State Government for approval by the fifteenth of November of the year. No expenditure shall be incurred by the Council which are not duly provided for in the budget or in the supplementary budget estimate.
